

Do You Know Who Picked Your Food?

It could be one of the approximately 400,000 child farmworkers in the United States.

More than 10,000 youth between the ages of 10 and 15 years were injured on farms in 2006.

In no other industry are children allowed to work as young as 12, and they have fewer legal protections than other children.

What You Can Do

We must act now to ensure farmworker children are being afforded the same protection as other children.

- ◆ Educate others about the plight of farmworker children
- ◆ Support educational programs for farmworker children
- ◆ Advocate to close the loophole that allows young children to work in agriculture
- ◆ Support fair living wages for all farmworkers
