

Migrant & Seasonal Farmworker Children

2019 ESSAY AND ART CONTESTS

We believe farmworker children have a story to tell, and we offer a platform for those stories through our annual Essay and Art Contest. This contest is a unique opportunity for farmworker children to broadcast their heartwarming and compelling stories on the national stage. In the process, they will discover the power in their own voice.

All entries will be used to help advocate for farmworker children's rights among policymakers and stakeholders.
